Richard O'Gorman has written a letter to Hall advising him as he has exhausted every legal expedient to oust Connolly, not to make another appointment to the office and to withdraw his notice to the Departments and trust with Connolly as Comptroller de facto, if not de jure. Deputy Comptroller Green is proceeding with a thorough investigation of the affairs of the office. A man claiming to know something of the theft of the vouchers was arrested to-day.

An accident of a painful nature occurred to-night. While Arcalon Commandery No. 10, of St. Louis, was parading with a band preceded by its commander, W. W. Thringer, on horseback, passing Barnum's Hotel, the street being densely crowded, his horse became frightened and fell on the rider, breaking his arm and bruising him badly. He was taken to Mount Vernon Hotel.

Nebraska Votes Down her New Constitution.

OMAHA, Sept. 19.—On the vote for the new Constitution of Nebraska, with twenty-seven prominent points to be heard from, there is 1,517 majority against its adoption. Three independent propositions were submitted: First, to make bank stockholders liable for three times the amount of stock; second, to give counties the right of prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors; third, prohibiting county or municipal aid to railroads; fourth, compulsory education; fifth, female suffrage. These were all voted down by overwhelming majorities—female suffrage worse than all. It is not expected that further returns will materially change this result.

Judge Field in the U. S. Circuit Court rendered an important decision in the case of the German Saving and Loan Bank against Geo. Coulton, Collector of Internal Revenue. S. R. Flagg, the boatman charged with the murder of Mickey Free, by shooting, two weeks since, was examined in the Police Court this morning. The shooting was admitted, but the defence set up that deceased had made threats against the life of defendant, and that the killing was to be viewed in the light of an act of necessary self-defence. The evidence showed that Mickey was a bad man, and that he was walking up and down on the sidewalk on the night of the murder muttering to himself, and defendant went and armed himself and shot him down though he might have avoided a collision if he desired to do so. Judge Sawyer could see no reason for looking at the case as one of anything but murder, and accordingly committed him for trial without bail.

Ex-Senator Doolittle is Democratic candidate for Governor in Wisconsin. It is suggested that his opponent need only collect and read during the canvass the speeches made against the Democratic party by Doolittle a short time ago when he was a rabid Republican.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THE CITY.

It may be important, especially to recent citizens, to know that our free schools offer increased advantages of education. The Directors have enlarged the Harrison street building; refitted the blackboards in several rooms; provided more comfortable seats, especially for the little children, and added one or two to the corps of teachers, besides filling the vacancies with well accredited instructors. A visit to all the rooms shows that teachers and pupils are refreshed by the long vacation and ready for vigorous work. It is a pleasing fact to note the steady, upward progress of the different classes. Pupils that, not long ago, were among the tenth grade primaries, are now in the fourth and even third grades of the grammar department.

It attests the value of our Public Schools, in keeping, as far as possible, the same teachers, who, while working together harmoniously, and knowing well their pupils, advance every class as far and as fast as they are prepared to go. This stimulates pupils and encourages parents.

Division of labor by the graded system helps both teacher and scholar. Yet our ten grades can be worked even more efficiently. No room should, in fact, have more than one grade. This is the plan in St. Louis, and in other large cities in which the Public Schools have so justly attained, and maintained pre eminence. The grade in each room is, for greater convenience and profit, formed into two divisions or classes, of about twenty pupils each. While one class is reciting a lesson the other is preparing a lesson. The first division will, of course be the more advanced pupils of that grade. Thus the grades are practically doubled, and the steps of progress are made easier and surer. Those two classes alternate between study and recitation every day without confusion, or loss of time. Their work is simple and plain to themselves as well as to their teachers. In fact a casual visitor can tell where every class is. The studies will be better pursued and illustrated, and also remembered. The room itself will help the mind to recall the subjects, as the workman's shop, the printer's case, and the merchant's shelf helps one to find his tools, the other his types, and the other his goods. Our public schools have two grades to a room, and in one case parts of three grades. This is a great improvement upon the jumble of mingling all classes in one or two rooms; but our desideratum is a single grade of two divisions to each room.

But it is obvious that our school buildings are not well constructed for this object; some rooms are too large, while others are too small for the purpose. The entrances are in the wrong places. The light, ventilation, seating and blackboard arrangements should be adapted to such a system of grading. In fact every school building should conform to the improved school idea, as our later built residences conform to the improved ideal of the family home. Every architect who follows the plan of his employer, and it is very unfortunate if any man attempts to build without a distinct plan.

It is plain that graded schools require central halls in every story but the attic. Grade rooms are easily and economically arranged on both sides of such halls, the lower grades below, and thus rising to the upper story, which should be a single room for the assembling of the whole school, for general purposes, or for musical instruction, like the upper room in the Bush street school of San Francisco.

For the convenience of departments, sliding doors, as in some of the St. Louis school buildings, should be placed between some of the rooms. A few such simple contrivances, in the place of our future school edifices would greatly facilitate the comfort and success of our schools.

The North school building needs just such a hall through the center, above and below—if its size will admit of the change. Our Central building is too small for the change. It should be moved into a corner of the block for primary departments and a center building worthy of the admirable location, the city's growth and the school interest, should be erected on that site. Our High school should be in this central location, for the obvious convenience of pupils from all parts of our widely expanding city. At present it cannot well be removed from the North building, though that will soon be so crowded as to need all the room.

For the welfare of all lower classes, it is imperatively necessary that pupils prepared for the High school and so designated by their teachers, should enter it at once. Their delay confuses teachers and pupils in the Grammar departments. Distance is an objection made by girls in the south part of the city; and this is to be regretted, but this evil is not so great as that of confusing the succeeding classes—for that confusion will increase more and more. Good plank sidewalks on Sixth, Seventh and Eighth streets, render it much easier to reach the North school from Carruthers' Addition than it was to reach the Central school formerly from the same points.

Our High school teachers have been long tried and most successful educators, and although their time is so still divided among too many grades and classes, yet they are doing vigorous work in their department.

In every review we ought to remember the little ones, who are forming their first idea of school. They need special and kindest care and culture. Like tender plants they can be easily crushed in spirit and power of growth, or they can be nurtured to a beautiful mental and moral development. It depends very much upon the spirit of the teachers which result shall be achieved. Their station and office is more important, if possible, than that of teachers in the intermediate or Grammar grades. They need many helps, such as comfortable seats and rooms—which some have—good charts and outline maps, and the constant aid and sympathy of Directors and friends, that their pupils may be well fitted for and happy to go into higher grades.

As a whole, there is much to cheer and encourage in the respect of our public schools in the city and county. If the people will take broad views of the subject and furnish Directors with funds enough to erect or improve buildings and pay current and justly increasing expenses for more teachers and furniture, our public schools will more and more attract families and enrich and ennoble the whole community.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Wyoming Legislature has a Republican majority. The last one was entirely Democratic—not a Republican member in either branch.

The Boise mines still yield well. The Gold Hill company on Granite creek cleaned out a four weeks run a few days ago, and had $10,000 for dividends.

A man named Doc Mann was stabbed by a man named Baker, at Rendesburg, Montana, last month. Mann was killed and Baker was taken from the Sheriff by a crowd of citizens and hung.

The fair now in progress at Vancouver is getting up in good shape, but it is not very extensive. The exhibition is quite good, though small. So far the members in attendance have not been large. Still the fair shows encouraging progress.

A widow named Liggett is accused of having stolen a considerable sum of money in Idaho from a man named McHendry. She fled toward Oregon. A warrant was issued for her arrest, but it is believed she escaped into this State.

The remains of Robert Rocket, who was drowned some months ago, in the Washugal above Vancouver, were recovered a few days ago. They were identified by the clothing. Some time ago a dead body was found which was supposed to be Rocket's, but now it is not known whose it was.

POLITICAL NOTES.

It is stated that the Chicago Republican is about to change hands and come out a Democratic paper in opposition to the Times of that city.

The Baltimore American says that many Maryland Democrats favor demanding from the Government pay for their emancipated slaves, as suggested by the Richmond Whig.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The announcement that Mayor Hall has accepted the advice of corporation counsel O'Gorman, to withdraw his order to the heads of Departments not to recognize Connolly, has quieted the feeling with regard to municipal matters and manifestly settles the ring.

The Mayor last night replied to the suggestions of O'Gorman that bills should be brought to recover money paid by the city on grossly extravagant contracts, and giving instructions in the premises; that O'Gorman is the head of the law department, and has full discretion to bring any action at law he may see fit for the promotion of the good of the city or the benefit of the treasury.

Two cases of the Asiatic cholera are reported at Perth Amboy, N. J., among recently landed emigrants from Germany.

Fernando Wood expresses the opinion that there will be no disorder in the Democratic party because of maleasance of a few men connected with the city frauds. He endorses Connolly's action; thinks Tweed should retire from the head of the Tammany organization, and doubts whether Tammany, which has not been formally together and a body for a year, will have any part in the Democratic Convention next month.

Horrible Murder near Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—A horrible murder occurred near Bremen in this county, Sunday morning. Joachim Grist, a well to do farmer, killed his wife by pouring boiling coffee down her throat. The matter came to light only yesterday. Grist is in jail.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The labor strikes continue. Numerous supporting meetings are held.

The health of the Queen is unimproved.

The Russian squadron remains a few days at Falmouth.

The Times, referring to the New York frauds, foresees a long legal contest. The issues and interests are all American, but are also those of friends of self government. The same paper also criticises the elections and advises the citizens to put aside party interests, otherwise evil will be checked for a time only and will recur in an aggravated form.

Affairs at Rome.

ROME, Sept. 20.—The anniversary of the occupation of the city by Italian troops was celebrated enthusiastically. The streets were festooned with flags, flowers and tapestry and shops were closed. Political associations paraded with flags. The crowd was immense but orderly. Troops were reviewed by the authorities and also by the King. Many foreigners have arrived via Mount Cenis tunnel.

French Affairs.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—Hot Arnim is indisposed.

Negotiations of a treaty are suspended. It is hoped an understanding will be effected upon the original basis mutually agreed upon. Appeals of Communists will be heard Thursday.

The plan for the defense of France includes a fortification in Champigne and the erection of a quadrilateral with detached forts around Metzeres and Chargeville.

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 21, 1871.

Is Anything to be Done?

Our citizens hear little now-a-days of the proposition for cheap water. Some time ago the subject was agitated, and it was decided on all hands that the present water rates were enormously and extortionately high, and, furthermore that the water was neither as good as it should be nor sufficient in quantity. Is the agitation to rest here? If so, it may reasonably be doubted whether the results attained are worth the trouble incurred.

Before us lies a pamphlet which tells of a town whose inhabitants have cheap water. This town is Jackson, Mich., a place whose population considerably exceeds that of Portland. At Jackson they have the Holly system. Water is furnished at the following rates:

To each private dwelling occupied by one family only, six rooms or less, $5 per annum, and $1 per annum for each additional room. To dry goods and other stores $5 to $10 per annum. To bakeries, $3 per annum. To hotels, for each room, $1.25 per annum. To private stables, each horse or cow, $1 per annum; livery stables, each horse, $1 per annum; fountains, one-sixteenth inch jet, $5 annum; one-eighth inch jet, $8 per annum. Photograph establishments pay from $5 to $8 per annum, and offices from $3 to $5.

These rates present a considerable contrast to those paid here. The question simply arises, how long are our citizens going to pay from four to ten times as much for water as citizens of other places pay? There is no use of being backward about speaking out on this subject. Citizens of Portland are taxed for water oppressively, extortionately, shamefully. They have power to help themselves. Are they going to do it? Or will they continue to pay these unconscionable rates and add more and more to the wealth of those who have already amassed fortunes by supplying water at extortionate prices?

Exposed by a Friend.

How Tammany manages elections was explained in detail by Congressman Roosevelt, a leading Democrat of New York, at the great reform meeting in that city a short time ago. As an explanation of the manner in which Tammany gained and still holds its supremacy, this revelation is very complete. Mr. Roosevelt declared that the greatest crime of the Democratic rulers of New York is not in their prodigious thefts of money, but in falsifying the will of the people by systematic fraud at the ballot-box. This they do in three ways, by repeating, by "ringing the ballot," and by false counting. The first was immensely successful, Mr. Roosevelt says, until the repeaters became a little too independent, carried things to extremes and "set up shop for themselves," when it was dropped for the cheaper and easier method of "ringing the ballot." This is described as a very beautiful operation. This is done by the inspector at the polls. It is his duty to put the ballot in the box, and on his hands the good Republican and anti-Tammany tickets become changed to the proper quality before they slip under the cover. "When one of you good innocent Republicans," said the speaker, goes to the polls to vote for the right man, your unwise intentions are quietly frustrated. The inspector holds in his hand the ballot you ought to deposit, and when he receives yours he quietly substitutes one for the other, and drops yours on the floor." It is a mere slight of hand, quickly learned and readily practised. The third plan is false counting. This, we are informed, is done generally by transferring the figures bodily. For instance, if Jones, the Tammany candidate, gets one hundred votes, and Smith, the opposition candidate, receives two hundred, the two hundred of Smith are transferred to Jones, who gives his one hundred to Smith. This is an exquisitely simple process, but in practice it is said to work badly, and great complaint is made of it by those who have tried it. In the first place, the candidates are often too nearly equal to give to Tammany its just preponderance or to overcome some persistent opposition in a district where this plan cannot be worked, for it is found utterly impracticable in some districts. Its defects can sometimes be cured by a false count. That is to say, the votes are counted by tens, one canvasser taking them up and counting ten, when he calls "tally," and slips a piece of elastic around the bundle. Of course he has only to take five votes instead of ten, and call "tally," to augment greatly the chances of his favorite. In one instance this was done so enthusiastically that the Tammany candidate had received fifty "tallies," or five hundred votes, and had a large majority yet uncounted, when the poll-clerk felt it advisable to inform the canvassers that there were only four hundred and fifty names on the registry. Tammany, all know, rules the Democracy of the United States. Through the heavy vote of New York, which the gang steals by means of the frauds described as above by a prominent man of their own party, they have been hoping to obtain control of the country. How widespread is the deadly influence of Tammany is shown by the fact that most of the Democratic papers of the country continue to support this unscrupulous gang; and even in Oregon the journals of that party are either defenders of Tammany or silent apologists for the frauds of that corrupt crew.

"Railway Murders."

Wendell Phillips does sometimes talk on current topics like a sensible man. We have an instance in an article from his pen on the "Railway Murders" in the National Standard. He does not hesitate to use the strongest possible language in denouncing the greed and carelessness of our railway corporations. Disasters like that on the Eastern Railroad in Massachusetts, resulting from criminal thoughtlessness or a systematic refusal to adopt every reasonable safeguard for the lives of passengers, are, in his opinion, murderous. We quote:

> The system of railway travel is so thoroughly incorporated into our civilization, that we must all use it. Any official whose neglect or greed makes it unnecessarily dangerous is a murderer of the gravest type. We shall never have security till we call things by their right names and allow no distinction between the man who deliberately shoots his neighbor and the company whose stinginess, avarice or indifference slaughters a score of rail passengers. The public must be roused to a serious sense of responsibility. The first duty of a railway company is the comfort and safety of its passengers. After that comes dividends. Railways now are a sort of footballs to kick to and fro, per cent. for stockholders. If nothing else can change this, then a scorp of directors, imprisoned for life, as they would be in Europe, must be tried.

The Democratic organ here, which plays the part of an apologist for the Tammany gang, says, facetiously, that "the latest news is, that there has been no new development of stealing by Radical office-holders within the last twenty-four hours." No, but there have been developments of stealing by Democratic office-holders. Indeed, the telegraphic dispatches contain little else.

Industrial Progress.

Spite of all croaking to the contrary, the fact stands out clearly that the industrial progress of the United States now far exceeds that of any period in the national history. H. C. Carey of Philadelphia, the well known political economist, has compiled some facts which may be profitably pondered on. He shows that during the decade from 1850 to 1860 the increase of population was 8,000,000, and the increase of tonnage carried on railroads 14,000,000 tons, while during the decade of 1860 to 1870 the increase of population (owing to the war) was only 7,000,000, but the increase of tonnage carried on railroads was 54,000,000 tons. In the first or low tariff period the average earnings of railroads were $4,000 per mile, and in the second or high tariff period the earnings were $9,000 per mile. He also shows, from official statements of the government, that the ship building for our home trade, in which foreigners are not allowed to engage, rose from 111,000 tons in 1860 to 182,000 in 1870. The increase of population in the last ten years has been 25 per cent, while the increase in domestic commerce has been 3,000 per cent. He presents in vivid language the insignificance of our foreign commerce in comparison with our home commerce.

REMARKABLE CURE OF MRS. HOOVER.

TUALATIN PLAINS, WASHINGTON Co., OREGON, July 23, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORVEA—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a LARGE BONY SWELLING grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last spring I have been taking your "Oak Wood Remedy," and find myself much improved: The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder and THE BONY GROWTH HAS ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED and I use my limbs and am as far better than I have been for years.

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORSHIP.

H. H. PEARSON,

Late of the Russ House.

HAVING BOUGHT THE INTEREST OF MESSRS. Tubbs & Patten, of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, I have secured a lease for a term of years of the well known and elegantly furnished Hotel. The Proprietor will endeavor to merit the liberal patronage so long bestowed upon the Russ House, and will keep pace with the times by intending to make no reductions in the scale of charges. He will, however, endeavor to make it a family and business house, while a large connection with the traveling public, warrants him in expecting a large amount of country Pacific Coast and Eastern patronage. The prices will range from one to three dollars a day for ordinary accommodation. Board by the week or month as per contract. The Table will be kept on the most liberal scale and many improvements introduced. The spacious reading room is the finest in the city, while the furniture and fittings are generally are superior to those of any hotel in San Francisco. The house will be thoroughly overhauled, PEARSON assumes proprietorship this day. H. H. PEARSON.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 21, 1871.

CITY.

THE O. C. RAILROAD—LOCOMOTIVE TO THE FRONT.—About two o'clock P. M. yesterday the track laying to connect Fourth street, at the high bridge, with the road beyond, was completed. The locomotive, John H. Couch was run up to the bridge, at that hour, having on board the tender, Messrs. Holladay, Halsey, Weidler, Judge Williams, R. R. Thompson, and several others. A stop being made at this end of the bridge, to wait for a few last spikes to be driven, some of the party went down into the canyon to observe the passage of the locomotive over the bridge and to see what the effect of the immense weight would be upon the timbers of the tall structure, while others walked across the bridge. In a few minutes, the locomotive passed over, having on board only Messrs. Halsey, Weidler, Turnbull, engineer, brakeman and fireman. The bridge seemed as steady as the solid ground and all doubts about its safety were at once put entirely at rest. No sinking was observed at any point, and there was scarcely a perceptible tremor of the timbers. Arrived at the other end of the bridge, the party remounted the tender and proceeded up the road to bridge No. 5, (known under the old regime as No. 4) which is the present "front" of the track. This bridge has been entirely rebuilt, as have been two other high bridges crossed on the way, of heavy timbers and in the most substantial style. The "deep cut," an immense and difficult piece of excavation, is just beyond No. 5 bridge. Some work yet remains to be done at that point before the track-laying can be done, as the ground is springy and treacherous. The detention, however, will not be long. The road as far as the rails are laid is built in first class style and will compare favorably with the best sections of that on the other side of the river. On the return trip the entire party rode over the high bridge. The height is rather a dizzy one and calculated to try delicate nerves, but the passage satisfied all hands as to the strength and safety of the bridge.

COMING, COMING!—"Jeems Pipes" has a letter in the Golden Era of the 17th inst., written at Albany September 9th, from which we take the following scrap:

"Truly a little paradise of a location, and as I rambled into the outskirts of the town, and gazed on the tall pines and cedars, surrounding it on all sides, their stately crests looming upward to the sky, I thought how many garden spots there are in this wide world of ours, that man knows nothing of, and the great big trees seemed to look down approvingly upon the busy hum of trade and commerce, and the growing prosperity of this embryo city, as I listened and heard the shrill scream of the engine whistle—here away off, in almost the deserts of the Oregon, I thought of Frank Soule's graphic lines:

"'See ye not Progression's train,
Hear ye not the Locomotive
Thundering along the plain?
List, 'tis coming nearer, nearer,
Hear ye not these grand harmonies!
Thirty sister States are coming
Hither on those rushing cars!'"

Now, that is what we should call really a "tide of immigration." We can't exactly see where we are going to put all thirty of our big sisters—our "little bed" is so small—but we reckon it's all right. Let 'em come.

THEATRICAL.—It is said that E. G. Bert, Manager of the Metropolitan Theater, San Francisco, contemplates leasing the Odd Fine Theater in this city, and maintaining a company here during the coming winter.

It is also reported that Miss Lee Hudson and a full dramatic company will leave San Francisco on the next steamer en route for Salem, where they will play an engagement during the coming State Fair.

We see in Figaro that Mrs. F. M. Bates is playing a star engagement at the Metropolitan Theater, San Francisco. She is playing "Pigeon, the Tormont," in H. P. Taylor's new domestic drama of "Pigeon," and the Figaro theatrical critic speaks in flattering terms of her personation. Mr. J. H. Vinson is cast in the same piece.

COUNTY COURT.—The following business was transacted on the 19:

Ruhl, Lowenstein & Co. vs. J. R. Beal. Suit on account. Judgment for plaintiffs for the sum of $340 50.

John Dolan, County Assessor, was allowed until November 1st to complete the assessment roll.

Three persons were granted permits to enter the County Hospital for treatment.

An appropriation for the building of three bridges lately destroyed by fire on the Peter Smith road, was made.

An order was made to have a road surveyed in the Gault District, and that the plat of previous surveys be filed.

LINN COUNTY FAIR.—We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary card of invitation from Mr. J. H. Evans, Secretary of the Linn County Agricultural Society, to the Fair, which will begin next Tuesday. In an accompanying note, Mr. Evans says there are about forty horses at the Fair Ground training for the races. The premiums are so liberal that we doubt not there will be lively competition and better races than the average at county or State Fairs.

POWHATAN CLAY.—In digging a well at the County Hospital a few miles west of this city last week, workmen came to a thick strata of red clay, of the finest quality. The deposit is about thirty-four feet below the surface. This material is used in Minnesota, and by the people of the Red River of the North, for manufacturing various articles, and in days long gone by in Virginia, the celebrated Powhattan pipe was produced from similar clay, which fact has given it the name of Powhattan clay.

CHARGE OF ABDUCTION.—On Monday night a Chinaman was arrested and taken before Justice Moreland, on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. The Chinaman stated the facts to be that a white man attempted to abduct a Chinawoman, and in her defence, he fired a revolver at the white man. Yesterday the white man, named McAllister, was arrested upon a charge of abduction, and will have a hearing this morning before Judge Deady.

BODY FOUND.—The Bulletin of yesterday, says: Yesterday morning the body of a man was found floating in the Columbia river, about ten miles below the mouth of the Wallamet. The body had evidently been in the water for some time, and was so decomposed that it was impossible to recognise the features.

DEATH OF LIEUT. QUINN.—Capt. Caballo, last evening, received a telegram from San Francisco, informing him of the death of Lieut. Quinn of the Emmet Guard. His body will be brought to Portland on the next steamer for interment. Lieut. Quinn went to California about three weeks ago for his health.

PREPARING TO LAUNCH.—The hull of the old steamer Nez Perces Chief, which has been fitted up for a cattle barge, will be ready for launch in two or three days. Workmen were yesterday reconstructing the ways.

SHEET MUSIC.—Mr. S. J. McCormick has a finely selected assortment of sheet music, from which "The Boy at the Fountain" and "Bessie Lee," a couple of new choice pieces, have been laid upon our table.

CHARGE OF INSANITY.—A man named Yost was arrested yesterday upon the charge of insanity and will be examined to-day. Yost has often been in the Police Court for minor offenses.

BURIAL.—The remains of George Pratt of this city, who died in Ogden, Utah Territory, about two weeks ago, were interred on Sauvie's Island yesterday.

APPOINTMENT.—The County Court has appointed A. J. Stevens constable for the South Portland precinct.

ROSS & FISHEL have received by the late steamers, large invoices of clothing and gents furnishing, and they now have the largest and best assortment of goods in their line in the city. They sell low, and everybody can buy. Go to Kobb & Fishel's 51 Front street for bargains.

NOTICE.—All persons desirous of renting Pews in the First Congregational Church of Portland, and have not done so, are requested to make their selection during this week. A list of the assessment prices and chart of the room, will be left with the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Atkinson, who will give any information desired.

COMMON COUNCIL.

REGULAR MEETING, SEPT. 20, 1871.

Present—His Honor Mayor Wasserman and Councilmen Bills, Burton, Caywood, Combs, Congle, Hill and Moffett.

PERMIT.

A petition was received from A. H. Morgan to use a part of a street for building purposes—granted.

BRIDGE ACROSS THE WALLAMET.

The following communication was received, read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means:

To the Honorable the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Portland—GENTLEMEN: Your petitioners, the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad Company, propose to establish the initial point of said Company's proposed road on the west bank of the Willamette river, between the north line of Salmon and the south line of Clay streets in the city of Portland, where it may be most suitable for the erection of a bridge across said river: Provided, however, that the city authorities shall grant to our Company, so far as they may have power, the right to construct such bridge as is contemplated by the Act of Congress and the ordinance of the city heretofore passed upon that subject.

Your petitioners have reason to hope that the Congress of the United States will, at its next session, grant aid in the construction of the contemplated railroad from Portland by way of the Dalles, to some point on the line of the Union Pacific Railroad in the vicinity of Salt Lake, and to this end your petitioners will press its importance upon the attention of Congress, in doing which, as well as in the construction of the bridge and road, we have good reason to expect the hearty co operation of some of the most influential railroad men and capitalists in the United States.

In conferring upon our Company the right to construct their railroad bridge across the Willamette river, you will enlist in support of this enterprise all the friends of the proposed railroad from Portland to the Atlantic, and, as we believe, secure the means for the early commencement and completion of said bridge, as we has greatly facilitate the movements set on foot having for their object the construction of said road.

Your petitioners are informed that the time had expired within which the Portland Bridge Company were to have performed certain things provided for by your ordinance, and that they do not prosecute the enterprise, but desire that your petitioners may receive from your honorable body the right to do so.

Your petitioners suggest that three months, at least, may be allowed within which to file maps, &c., as provided for in the ordinance heretofore passed upon this subject.

Your petitioners herewith present an ordinance which they pray your honorable body may pass.

W. W. CHAPMAN,
President Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake R. R. Co.

PORTLAND, Sept. 20, 1871.

STREET GRADE AT THE RESERVOIR.

A petition was received from the Portland Water Company, asking that the grade of Fourth and Market streets, in front of their reservoir, so far as the sidewalks are concerned, be permitted to remain as now, on account of the damage to the walls of the reservoir which must ensue if the street be excavated below the foundation. The petition was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property, with instructions to act in the premises as may be necessary till the next meeting of the Council.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

The Committee on Fire and Water, to whom was referred a recent communication of the Chief Engineer, reported, recommending that new covers be put upon the cisterns at the intersections of Alder and First and Morrison and First streets. Report adopted.

The Committee on Streets and Public Property reported that in accordance with instructions, they had made inquiry as to the means of acquiring to the city the title to the Park blocks, and that they had ascertained the probable cost of purchase from holders to be about $138,000. The report was ordered placed on file.

A NEW CISTERN NEEDED.

The Chief Engineer sent in a communication recommending the construction of a cistern at the intersection of Harrison and Seventh streets. Referred to the Committee on Fire and Water.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY.

The following claims were allowed and ordered paid: H. L. Pittock, advertising, $22 70; John Gruber, surveyor's monument, $6 50; C. H. Myers, numerous bills for lamp posts, hydrants, repairs, etc., $249 60; Hawley, Dodd & Co., $7 58; Wallamet Iron Works, $16; Byers & Lowe, brick work, etc., for engine house, $304; P. G. Baker, G street contract, $2,350 37; same, North Eighth street contract, $136 50; E. Johnson & Co., North Eighth street contract, $158 22.

In connection with a bill of C. H. Myers for a lamp post to replace one broken down by a runaway team, on motion of Mr. Hill, the Committee on Streets and Public Property was instructed to inquire as to the liability of the owner of the team for the payment of damages to the city.

BUSINESS TAKEN FROM THE TABLE.

The ordinance fixing the salary of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, was taken from the table and a vote being taken upon its passage, it was lost by a vote of 4 yeas to 5 nays.

The ordinance adopting the report of the viewers in the matter of Main street, was taken from the table and passed.

The bill of A. Myers, $26, for filling a part of a street in front of his property, was taken from the table and a motion to refer it to the Committee on Streets and Public Property, was lost.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

NEW FIRM.—We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Martin & Sears, successors to C. M. Martin. Mr. Martin is well known in our community for business enterprise and fair dealing. Mr. Sears has for a number of years been engaged in business in California, where he bears the best of name. We doubt not but all in dealing with them will be well satisfied.

CATARRH, Throat, Bronchial and Lung Affections are treated successfully by the new and scientific mode as practiced by Dr. Aborn—at the St. Charles Hotel—also all diseases of the eye and ear.

Mrs. Grundy says (and the old lady was never known to tell an untruth) that Ferry & Hitch, 178 First street, between Salmon and Main, are selling new and second-hand furniture, bedding, carpets, etc., etc., cheaper than ever offered in this city before.

If you want a Parlor Suite and Marble Table go to HOLBROOK & SHINDLER.

CLARKE COUNTY FAIR.

The fourth annual Fair of the Clarke County Agricultural and Mechanical Society opened at the Metropolis Hall, Vancouver, on Tuesday morning at 9 A. M. There was but little done during the first day beyond arranging articles for exhibition and making preparations for yesterday and to-day. We append a of the Society for 1871: Gay Hayden, President; William Dutton, Sr., and T. J. Hosford, Vice Presidents; Julius Suiste, Secretary; M. R. Hathaway, Treasurer; Aug. A. Shaoban, Corresponding Secretary.

Yesterday the attendance was greater than on Monday, but there were not as many present as was anticipated. Quite a number of people from Portland were in attendance.

THE DISPLAY OF PRODUCTS

was meager. Mr. S. W. Brown exhibited two varieties of peaches, three varieties of pears, two ditto of plums, and several varieties of apples. George Tooley's display of potatoes, some five varieties, corn, carrots, cabbages, squashes, parsnips and beets was very fine, particularly the potatoes and parsnips.

Of flowers and plants, Mrs. Hayden and Ebert presented for exhibition several beautiful varieties. The Portland City Park made an attractive show of flowers and plants which were much commented upon. The everlasting bouquet at this stand was greatly admired. Wilson Knight had on exhibition a number of stuffed birds. A set of harness, manufactured by Joseph Dupuis, was the only piece of work in that department. In the main or front room there was a fine lot of butter, home-made bread, preserves and wines—the first article exhibited by Mrs. Jos. Durgin. Of fancy work, we observed several beautiful children's dresses, cloaks and other articles, principally the handiwork of Mrs. Smiste. A quilt and matting done by Mrs. Beatty, a lady 91 years of age, was on exhibition. Mr. C. H. Whitney made a general display of ironware. Outside parties had patent farming implements which could not be considered a part of the county's department. The walls were decorated with flags of bunting and silk and quite a profusion of pictures, some of which were, we believe, the work of any one within the county. There was no cattle, swine or blooded horses on exhibition. Why, we did not learn. No grain was on exhibition. This seemed to be wanting to fill up.

AT THE RACE COURSE,

In the morning, there was one dash, half mile heat, between two-year old colts. The attendance was small. At 2 o'clock Gay Hayden, Esq., delivered the annual address. Later in the day, there was one race at the race course, half-mile heats, between feather-weight Washington Territory animals.

AMUSEMENTS.

During the afternoon the 23d Infantry Band discoursed music in front of the building in which the fair was being held. There were two shows present during the fair—Mlle. Jeal & Co's Circus and Barker's Panorama combination, which includes the Taylor Family, consisting of Mart, Barney and Tony Ward. A tableaux entertainment on Tuesday evening, given by the ladies of the Episcopal Church at Eddings' Hall had a dampening effect on the shows, circus and combination. The circus opened to empty benches yesterday afternoon—bad enough, certainly, to discourage any manager. However, a better show than usual was given. The Iron Man made his first appearance and drew great applause. As the Taylor Family is not a very attractive show, the circus likely had it all its own way last evening.

THE LAST DAY.

To-day is the last of the fair. Several races will take place on the course. Partial awards will be made to-day, and a grand ball in the evening will wind up the Fourth Annual Fair.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The garrison at Vancouver now consists of three companies. Maj. A. J. Dallas has command of the Post. Major Kress commands the Ordnance Department, and Col. H. W. Jones the Quartermaster Department.

The steamer Cowlitz lies beached in front of the city—she is undergoing repairs.

Major E. G. Adams desires to be continued in the Register's office, and petitions are being circulated asking for his continuance.

Columbia Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 3—Regular meeting this (Thursday) evening at half-past seven o'clock. All members are invited to attend.

By order of the Secretary. sz21dlt

Over-doctored.

Without any disrespect to the members of the medical profession, a profession honored by all thinking men, it is only just to say that they are too thick on the ground. The consequence is that the community is doctored over much. When nature needs only the gentle stimulant and alterative which has become famous throughout the country as a reliable medicine, under the name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, she is not unfrequently dosed with a dozen prescriptions, all experimental, from the Pharmacopœia. This is an evil, and proves that the practice of medicine is far from being at all times a healing art. At this period of the year, when the fall of the leaf indicates that decay has seized upon the vegetable kingdom, many harassing diseases are prevalent. Chief among these may be mentioned intermittent fever and bilious remittent. The exhalations arising from the decomposing vegetation, and the heavy dews and fogs, are very apt to generate those complaints. The wisest policy is to protect the system by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters at the commencement of the fall. Much suffering may thereby be avoided. But if the disease has already begun, its periodical visitations may readily be thwarted and broken up by this active, yet harmless, vegetable tonic.

But be on your guard against the charlatans who are attempting to palm off, under various names, and whole some compounds, which they pretend to compare favorably with the great national elixir, which has long swept more formidable opposition from the field. Bear in mind that every bottle of genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is authenticated by a splendidly engraved label, and a fac simile of the sign manual of the firm. Put up in bottles only, and cannot be obtained in bulk.

FOREIGN NOTES.

A son of the celebrated poet William Magian, for years a writer for Blackwood's Magazine, is now acting as "Boots" and general messenger at an inn in Bath, England. Some friends of his father are trying to better his fortunes in some way.

M. Guizot, notwithstanding his great age, is said to be as hale and hearty as he has been at any time during these last twenty years. He does not hesitate to express his opinion that all parties should at the present, maintain the existing order of things.

Out of three hundred and seven millions of people carried on English railroads in 1869, only seventeen were killed by causes beyond their own control, while in the streets of London one hundred and forty persons were killed. It is estimated that the orange-peel thrown on London pavements kill more than all the English railroads.

France does not concern herself much with the interviews taking place between the Emperors of Germany and Austria. She is more curious on this subject than concerned. In "foreign" affairs the country concentrates all its attention on Alsace and Lorraine, and it is indeed a poor French journal that has not a correspondent in some part of the territory.

One of the New York comic papers has a very clever bit on the Tammany frauds. It represents a woman purchasing a pound of sugar, for which she is charged twenty cents. "Why, you only charged me fifteen cents the last time," said the woman with surprise. "That is so, ma'am," but the Mayor has bought some sugar since then, and we are compelled to raise our prices."

Some of the papers favor J. Proctor Knott for United States Senator from Kentucky. It says: "His politics are execrable, but he can make a very funny speech, and Kentucky has loved the Senate so numerically for these many years past in the person of her senior Senator (Garrett Davis) that it is only just she should contribute, for once in a way, to its amusement."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Wednesday Evening, Sept. 20, 1871.

Gold in New York, 114½.

Currency, buying 109; selling 108.

Steamer Alpha leaves to-morrow (Thursday) evening at 7 o'clock for San Francisco.

Steamer California will not take her place on the Puget Sound route as soon as expected, as repairs cannot be made soon enough.

It is the opinion of a private telegram from New York to the effect that the combination between the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and the Central Railroad Co. of Iowa is going to go into operation September 15th. The advance in tariff was 50 per cent. on former rates from Sacramento to the Eastern terminus.

The Alliance arrived at Liverpool from San Francisco via Queenstown, sailing September 8th, consisted of 9,200 half and 4,000 three quarter sacks Flour.

The Commercial Herald, in commenting upon vessels now loading for the United Kingdom, remarks: "We have of late been receiving free supplies from Oregon of both Flour and Wheat, not a little of which changed hands two or three times before arrival here."

Large shipments of wheat by railroad are being made from San Francisco to St. Louis. The amount shipped last week aggregated 3,400 bags or 442,000 lbs of Central America grain.

Lots Rocquin advises grey market for Sugar and Molasses quite bare with prospective light exports for two months. Reports from the Sugar crop given it as large as the season is, it will come in earlier than usual. The export of Wheat from San Francisco to the United Kingdom since the commencement of the present harvest year is as follows: 10 vessels carrying 280,276 centals, valued at 3042,843, against 31 vessels carrying 381,836 centals, valued at $1,803,969, for the like period last year. There are three vessels on the berth in San Francisco for Liverpool aggregating 3,376 tons.

The exports from this port to San Francisco from Sept. 1st to date are as follows: 15,621 sks Wheat, 24,261 qr sks Flour, 120 bbls and 5 hf bbls Salmon, 160 pkgs Bacon, 5 pkgs Hams, 4 pkgs Butter, 28 pkgs dried Apples. During the previous months of this year—from Jan. 1st to Sept. 1st—the exports were: 29,712 sks Wheat; 425,261 qr sks Flour; 6,683 sks Oats; 4,457 bbls, 1,749 hfbbls and 35,777 pkgs Salmon; 23,388 pkgs Bacon; 165 bbls and 50 cs Beef; 207 pkgs Hams; 882 pkgs Butter; 490 pkgs Lard; 1,216 bbls Pork; 1,110 pkgs dried Apples; 27,833 lbs green Apples.

The United States Crop season of 1870-71 having closed, we learn that the receipts did not vary far from 4,000,000 bales. Of the present crop no estimate has been formed with any great accuracy, for like all estimates the state of the weather has much to do with the final result. In the forepart of the season the general impression prevailed the crop would be short, but owing to more favorable growing weather the crop was revived, and by last advices received from the East the yield will be fully an average to the acre. Reports were spread that in some quarters of the South the crop was greatly injured by the army worm, but by telegraph we learn that the Bureau of Agriculture deny that any serious injury has been inflicted upon the crop. In Great Britain prices rule firm at an advance with a very strong upward tendency, that will ultimately, probably, cause the raw to sell at as high a figure as ruled in 1869. The India crop is reported short for the season owing to the low prices ruling in 1870, which caused planters to turn their attention to other crops as they cannot compete with American planters. We give below the statistical position of Cotton as furnished to the Eastern press by Mr. Chas. A. Taylor. From these statistics it will be seen that the visible supply is largely in excess of the two preceding years, but it must be borne in mind that the consumption is very much larger in proportion, owing to the extra large stock of goods manufactured fabrics and the increased demand in Europe and America. These statistics are of great value, as furnishing the prospective future for cotton goods, in which all are interested:
